An interim direction has already been passed by this Court as per order dated 12.4.2007. Respondents have entered appearance and controverted the averments made in the writ petition by filing a counter affidavit and stated that they are not causing any obstruction. The same is recorded. Since a direction is issued by this Court to grant protection only if any obstruction caused, the same will not affect adversely any party so long as no obstruction is caused. No further orders are required. The interim direction already issued will continue.

The writ petition is closed.
